AMUSEMENTS

At the Airdome.

Despite the very inclement weather the Airdome was well filled last night, and nothing but a good attraction could have brought as many out as attended the two performances.

As usual the performance was up to its high standard. Adonis and his trained dog, which are the best ever seen on the Bijou stage, receiving loud applause at each performance. The management made no mistake in billing this great drawing card, and they also booked good performers in Miss Williams and Billy VanAllen, two clever dancers and singers. Miss Katherine Martin, the character change artist, and Mayme and Mayme are doing their part in drawing big crowds and making the show a good one.

Tomorrow afternoon at the moving pictures souvenirs will be given to each person attending.

The Civic League Play.

"The Union Depot for a Day" is the title of the play to be given by the Civic League on the evening of June 10th at the Pensacola opera house, and a clever, up-to-date and very worth while effort it promises to be.

A farce that is bubbling with fun from beginning to end, the play is bound to take with the public, especially as many of Pensacola's prominent business men and society women will appear in the cast of characters. The play is now fairly launched under the capable direction of Miss Olga White, the parts all assigned and regular rehearsals are occurring.

Beautiful East Pensacola Heights.

Are you working for the $30? An afternoon spent on East Pensacola Heights will be one never to be forgotten, even if you do not win a prize. When one afternoon spent there is so great a pleasure, consider what it would be to live there. You may, and you will be surprised how cheaply you can buy the lot.

TALLAHASSEE NEWS NOTES

Florida.

Special to The Journal.
Tallahassee, May 18.—Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Bethel gave a delightful large tea Saturday afternoon in honor of their visiting guest, Miss Bessie Snow.

The whole lower floor was a bower of bloom and beauty. The color scheme was pink and blue and in the formal decoration these colors were exquisitely blended, roses and sweet peas being the flowers used. The tea table was laid in the handsome apartment, half breakfast room, half conservatory, which has recently been added to the Bethel residence, and there delicious refreshments were served.

In the games Miss Henrietta Ames made the highest score, and was awarded a lovely pink gauze fan with ivory sticks. The consolation prize, a handsome blue silk parasol, was given to Mrs. Walter Wight, of Cairo, Georgia.

Guests present were: Mrs. T. E. Perkins, Mrs. Donald C. McMullen, Mrs. C. M. Ausley, Mrs. D. M. Lowry, Mrs. Fred C. Moor, Mrs. Walter Wright, Mrs. Talbot Whitfield, Misses Gertrude Chittenden, Henrietta Ames, Kate Sullivan, Lucile Saxon, Ella Nash, Jessie Edmondson, Felicia Perry, Mary Cherry and Miss Snow, the honoree.

Sacred Concert.
About two hundred of Tallahassee's legislative and other guests and citizens were entertained Sunday afternoon at a sacred concert given in the large east parlor of the Leon hotel.

The program, which had been arranged by Miss Helen Hampton, consisted of many delightful numbers, the larger part of them being rendered by the ladies from abroad who have been so generous and obliging in lending themselves to the success and pleasure of this and similar occasions during the weeks in which they have been visiting here.

The Leon has been an unusually pleasant social center this season owing to the residence there of Miss Hampton who, as everybody knows, is indefatigable in planning for the enjoyment of everybody within her reach. Aided and abetted by Mr. Eugene Lyday, the genial and hospitable manager of the hotel, Miss Hampton has been the organizer of much special pleasure during the present legislative season.

Series Completed.
The Tallahassee Musical Club last evening completed its 1908-09 series of eight monthly concerts called for in its by-laws, and now the members will take a rest until next October.

The concert was given at the residence of Mr. Foster C. Gilmore and was largely attended. The house is delightfully constructed for such gatherings, as the wide verandas, both front and rear, open off the parlors and afford space for a large crowd who can sit comfortably out in the fresh, cool night and yet see and hear as well as can those within.

The hall and parlors were beautifully decorated with growing plants and cut flowers, the exquisite sweet pea in every combination of coloring predominating.

The delightful musical program was greatly enjoyed, those participating being great favorites with the audience, and the later musical guessing contest afforded a great deal of amusement. In this contest, Mrs. Day J. Apte, the successful competitor was awarded a magnificent bouquet of purple asters. Punch was served on the verandas which were softly lighted by the glow of innumerable Japanese lanterns.

Miss Sara Freeland, editor of Jacksonville's society paper, "Cost of Arms," was honored last evening at a delightful bridge party given by Mrs. James E. Broome, at the residence of Mrs. A. L. Bond, on Monroe street. Three tables were set in the beautifully decorated parlor, and after the game delicious refreshments of frozen punch, strawberry ice cream, cake and bonbons were served. Miss Freeland returns home today.

Mrs. E. H. Sellards was hostess yesterday at a charming morning luncheon given in honor of her mother, Mrs. D. F. Alford, of Lawrence, Kansas. Mrs. Alford, who has been spending the winter here as the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Sellards, will return home tomorrow.

Misses Dolly Duncan, Estelle Wilkins, Pearl and Essie Long, Ellen Pyne, Emma Seacole, Christine Alsobrooks, Pearl McLean and Ethel Peter were guests at a delightful dinner party given them Sunday by Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Withers, at the residence of Miss Whitley, on Monroe street. Mr. Withers is senator from Lake county and most of the young ladies were students attending the State College for Women from that county.

Several of Jacksonville's leading citizens are to be seen on Tallahassee streets this week. Among them are Dr. Colson Perry, Messrs. Robert Gamble, C. C. Barton, Geo. W. Batters, D. M. Baker, R. F. Bowden, sheriff of Duval county, and Col. Max Myerson, president of the society for prevention of cruelty to animals.

The Florida State Board of Medical Examiners, of which Dr. H. E. Palmer, of this city, is president, will meet here tomorrow, and continue in session through Thursday.

Mrs. Arthur C. Spiller returned Monday from a pleasant visit to her sister, Mrs. Frank Spiller, of Jacksonville.

Rev. D. F. Perdue, of Apalachicola, preached last Sunday at St. John's Episcopal church in this city. Mr. Perdue returned home today.
